27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - 2 OCTOBER 2022

Kia Ora koutou katoa, nga mihi nui... welcome as we celebrate the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time.
A special welcome to visitors or newcomers to Good Shepherd today.

This Tuesday the church celebrates the feast day of one its most loved saints -

St Francis of Assisi

Pope Francis choose to take Francis as his name, mindful of the saint's love and concern for the poor, for all God's creatures and all creation. In his Canticle of Creation, St Francis sings of creation as if all creation belongs to one family...

'All creatures of our God and King, lift up your hearts...'

Pope Francis' encyclical 'on care of our common home', Laudato Sii, draws inspiration from the spirituality of St Francis of Assisi.
In recent years Pope Francis has increasingly calling us to be mindful of the impact we as human beings are having on the created world -

"If we learn how to listen, we can hear in the voice of creation a kind of dissonance. On the one hand, we can hear a sweet song in praise of our beloved Creator; on the other, an anguished plea, lamenting our mistreatment of this our common home".

Let us join Pope Francis in prayer-
*All-powerful God,
you are present in the whole universe
and in the smallest of your creatures.*

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

*O God of the poor,
help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten
of this earth, so precious in your eyes.*

*Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty,
not pollution and destruction.*

*Touch the hearts
of those who look only for gain
at the expense of the poor and the earth.
Teach us to discover the worth of each thing,
to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature*

*as we journey towards your infinite light.
We thank you for being with us each day.
Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace. Amen*

.....
Today, Sunday is also the Feast of the Guardian Angels
'O angel of God my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide Amen.

As school holidays commence this weekend we pray in thanksgiving for all involved in the noble vocation of teaching.
We pray for students and all involved in supporting our school communities.

May the holidays be a time of rest and renewal.

Blessings, Bernard

No 9.30am Mass Tuesday as there is the Funeral for Br Pat Hill fms at 10.30am.

Today, Sunday 2 October is marked as a day of celebration for the Venerable Meri Hōhepa-Suzanne Aubert. The purpose of this important national day of celebration is to promote and celebrate the spirituality and good works of Suzanne Aubert to as many people as possible.

Property improvements

Good Shepherd School has received funding to improve access and safety to the Volcanic St entrance. New gates have been installed. The path alongside the netball courts (from the Volcanic St entrance car park to the church forecourt) is also being upgraded during the school holidays. The roof above the north annex of Good Shepherd Hall (above the parish office, kitchen, and supper room) is leaking and is to be replaced in the coming weeks.

Today's Readings

FIRST READING • (Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4). The violence and discord of our world is distressing and disorienting, as it was for the prophet Habakkuk in his day. He cried out to God, who seemed to be uncaring. Gradually God taught him, and teaches us, not to lose faith but to believe.

SECOND READING • (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14). Witnessing to our faith before others can be daunting, but we should not be ashamed of it. We can look to the example of people like St Paul who were willing to suffer greatly for their beliefs. We can rely, above all, on the power of God to help and sustain us.

GOSPEL • (Luke 17:15-19). Our faith may feel weak, but even a small degree of faith is enough in the eyes of Jesus. It will show itself by perseverance, humility and service of others.
